"OWN YOUR HOME," M'ADOO'S ADVICE

Former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo yesterday endorsed the Own-Your-Own-Home campaign of the Department of Labor.

In a letter to Assistant Secretary Post he said that "the fundamental basis of prosperity and contentment is the widest possible diffusion of ownership of homes among the people of any country."

Since the removal of the ban on building, that industry has steadily removed, the department says. For the week ended April 14 contracts amounting to $60,894,085 were awarded.

HE MUST OUT-TALK FOUR G. W. U. GIRLS ASKS 'EMPLOYMENT SUNDAY' OBSERVED

Earl Wallick, a senior in the department of arts and sciences at George Washington University, is shivering in his shoes.

Earl has entered his name as a competitor in the Davis prize-speaking contest, to be held on the evening of Tuesday, April 23, in the assembly hall of the arts and sciences building, 2023 G street northwest. But when Earl entered his name he didn't know that he was to be opposed by four girls.

Earl has heard young women talk before, and he says that one is enough to tongue-tie any young man. But as for four—Earl is shivering in his shoes. He thinks he won't have a show.

The four young women—four, count them—are Margaret Prentiss, Lashlie McCaffrey, Catherine Moran, and Lino Castillejo.

Secretary of Labor Wilson today issued the following appeal for the observance of Sunday, May 4, as "Employment Sunday."

"The national church organizations of the country have united in a campaign to assist the United States employment service of the Department of Labor and co-operating agencies in finding employment for returning soldiers, sailors and war workers."

"They have designated Sunday, May 4, as 'Employment Sunday,' on which day the national program of employment administered by the United States employment service will be the subject of sermons and Bible class meetings, and churches will institute still further work on behalf of the returning men who must find new employment. Special appeal will be made to employers to keep their needs listed with the local offices of the United States employment service and its bureaus for returning soldiers and sailors, which are in touch with the soldiers and war workers seeking employment."

"I therefore earnestly call upon all churches and church members in the United States to take an active part in the observance of 'employment Sunday' and to make it and the following days count in the discharge of our obligation to those who offered themselves for our country and the cause of liberty."

BRITISH CENSORSHIP ON U. S. MAILS TO END

PARIS, April 18.—British censorship on mails to the United States and northern Europe neutral states probably will be removed within a fortnight as a result of friendly negotiations with British representatives here.

This action will involve the relinquishment of American censorship for these mails in order to prevent the disposition of German securities and assets required for reparations and efforts to open an illicit German trade but it is thought that the change to censorship by American officials will be welcome as ending a source of irritation and suspicion of discrimination against American business.

SENATOR TO TALK ON LEAGUES.
The League to Enforce Peace announced last night that Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the last Senate, will make an address on the revised league of nations constitution at Denver April 27, and at St. Louis April 28 or 29.

MRS. HEARST'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The will of Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, disposing of an estate valued at several millions of dollars, has been filed for probate in the superior court of San Francisco county. The will was in Mrs. Hearst's own handwriting and was dated at the Hacienda del Poso de Verona, Pleasanton, June 16, 1911. Two codicils had been added bearing the dates of May 14, 1917, and June 12, 1918. The second codicil made certain changes in the text of the will.

Mrs. Hearst had in her lifetime distributed in charity, philanthropic, educational, and public works a fortune estimated by those closest to her at $10,000,000. The bequests in her will are chiefly to members of her family and close personal friends. The University of California was the only institution mentioned in the will. The principal beneficiaries of the will are:

William Randolph Hearst, heir to all of the estate not otherwise disposed of.

George R. Hearst, William R. Hearst, Jr., John R. Hearst, Randolph A. Hearst, and Wilson W. Hearst, sons of William Randolph Hearst, to whom is bequeathed the Hearst building in San Francisco and the home and estate at Pleasanton.

Regents of the University of California, in trust for the university, $60,000 to continue scholarships and a valuable collection of paintings, tapestries, and objects of art.

Elbert Clark Apperson, of Sunol, a brother, $50,000; Elizabeth S. Apperson, his wife, $50,000; Sergt. Randolph W. Apperson, their son, $50,000, and Anne D. Apperson Flint, of New Haven, Conn., a niece, $250,000 and the country home on McCloud river.

Why Beefsteak Is High

This chart was copied from Bulletin No. 226, U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. It is the latest that has been issued. 100=1916 price.

Remember when beefsteak was 20c a pound?

Now it's 40 and 50 cents a pound.

Why?

This chart shows that the price packers have had to pay for cattle has gone up with the price received for beef.

In fact, it shows that the "spread" between cattle and beef prices has been gradually reduced during the past 30 years—owing to competition among packers, their increased efficiency, bigger volume, and elimination of waste.

The packer's profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound of meat has helped to narrow this "spread."

Increased farm-production costs have made higher cattle prices necessary.
